

As a WISP I support the addition of more frequency for Broadband use. I also would like to see this band dedicated to WISP's, with the current unlicensed spectrum it is hard to find a usable channel near towns due to telephones, and other wireless devices. High power output would allow WISP's larger coverage areas and therefore lower our cost to reach each potential subscriber, allowing WISP's to deploy more sites.

Mike Bushard Jr.
Reliable Internet Services